

I am absolutely against allowing an easy way for law enforcement to listen in on IP based communications. IP should be regarded in the same that mail and telephone is regarded. There is no rational reason to allow a different standard when considering IP based communication. Thank you for considering this comment.